The application for a FCS Fine Arts Scholarship and the application for admission by your chosen Swiss conservatory or art school (university of applied sciences) are two separate procedures. FCS applicants have to document that they have been accepted by an institution or that they are being considered for admission. Without such a document, the application will be rejected.

Application procedure

The application package can be obtained by e-mail from the Swiss Embassy in Moscow.

Applications should be submitted in triplet, with the number of copies indicated (hard copies only). The original, signed documents and attested translations should be submitted, along with two copies thereof. For details see the Application Guidelines available at your contact institution (see below).

Application timeframe

⇒ Opening of the call: 02.08.2016
 ⇒ Application deadline: 31.10.2016
 ⇒ Selection interview, if applicable ask: Swiss Embassy

⇒ Beginning of the scholarship: 1.9.2017

Application documents

(Please provide originals plus two sets of copies on A4 paper. Please do not staple the documents and/or put them into plastic folders or binders).

- ⇒ The official FCS 2017-2018 application form (typed and printed). Handwritten forms will not be accepted.
- A full curriculum vitae using the Europass model, which you can download at the following address: EUROPASS Model (this document is mandatory for fine arts applications).
- A letter of motivation: a two-page personal statement focusing on why you wish to study in Switzerland, the importance of this choice for your future career, and your professional projects at the end of the scholarship.
 - For painters, graphic artists and sculptors: copies or photos of three pieces of your work, along with rough drafts (including their dates of creation). It is important that you label your work with your name, surname and country. If the work is not labeled, the application will not be taken into consideration.
 - For musicians: high-quality CD of three different styles of music if the music involves interpreters and directors. Composers should submit their scores.

It is important that you label your CD with your name, surname and country. If the CD is not labeled, the application will not be taken into consideration. \Rightarrow An admission/confirmation document proving that the applicant is being considered for admission at the intended Swiss fine arts or music school (conservatory). This may be in the form of a conditional acceptance pending an entry exam or other specific requirements. \Rightarrow If applicable: a copy of the letter or email from a professor at the intended Swiss fine arts or music school confirming that they are willing to supervise the studies. Photocopies of all certificates and grade sheets from previously attended \Rightarrow universities/colleges and diplomas with grades. (If the originals are not in English, French, German or Italian, the copies must be translated into one of these languages and attested.)
